NOTE—Contn. sheet

Letter No.1210/F. 33 dated 29th July 1927 from the Superintendent Central Jail, Bangalore, to the Inspector-General of Prisons in Mysore, Bangalore.

In continuation of this Office letter No. 1210/F. 33 dated the 27th instant submitting lists of Male & Female prisoners proposed to be released on the 8th August 1927, I have the honour to report that in addition to the 85 prisoners mentioned therein

About 29 prisoners under 21 years of age

& " 57 " Who will along with others be given special remission in accordance with the scale prescribed in the Government order sent with the above, making an aggregate of 171 prisoners may have to be released on 8-8-1927.

As all the prisoners will have to be given road expenses for their journeys home and gratuities, if any, earned by them and as the Permanent advance allowed to this Office is insufficient to meet the same, I request that special sanction of Government may kindly be obtained to permit me to draw a lump sum of Rs. 1500/- in advance for this purpose and to render an account therefor soon after the 8th proximo.
